

Katy Trail Tour

Registration Form

Before you sign up, please take to heart: This is a group tour. Participants have to stay flexible and open-minded about last-minute changes due to weather, group dynamics, meals, etc. I have been guiding tours for 20 years, including international tours. Most people are suited for these adventures. Some are not... Please take a moment and carefully take stock of your personality and ask, "Am I willing and able to contribute to the success of a group tour?"

My goal as a trip leader is everyone's comfort and enjoyment. In order to maximize that, I seek similar open-minded, flexible, and adventure-seeking cyclists. If you have lovingly been described as "high maintenance," a "stick in the mud," "stubborn," or "hard-headed," this trip may not be for you. This is a group tour and we will often make group decisions with the benefit of the entire group in mind. Thank you!
